

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION. We inform that the data will be processed for the purpose of providing and billing our services, based on the execution of a contract and compliance with legal obligations. Data will be kept during the period established in the tax and trade regulations, at least. You can exercise your rights, by contacting the data controller Zolve España at the address specified on the invoice. You have the right to issue a complaint with the data protection authorities. More information at www.logifrio.com